

To obtain citizenship of the RA one must personally provide the application and the documents required by the law

In case there's a necessity of additional information, the documents are sent to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the RA to obtain its conclusion

If in a foreign country, to a diplomatic representation or consular office of the Republic of Armenia; the documents alongside with the conclusion of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the RA are sent to the Passport and Visa Department of the Police of the RA

If in Armenia, to the Passport and Visa Department of the Police of the RA

The documents are sent to the Agency of National Security to obtain its conclusion

The Passport and Visa Department of the Police of the RA sends the documents to the Administration of the President of the RA

A Decree of the President on providing the citizenship of the RA

The citizen gets notification that the documents have been sent to the Administration of the President

The citizen gets notification to get acquainted with the Presidential Decree and to participate in the Oath Ceremony

According to the Armenian legislation the citizen obtains the passport of the citizen of the RA

